

Have your say to improve outpatient care

The NSW Outpatient Survey is asking people who recently visited a public hospital outpatient clinic about their experience.

If you are one of the 50,000 people surveyed, it's your opportunity to tell us what you think worked for you and what could have been done better. Your feedback is important and will be used to help improve outpatient services in the future.

Bureau of Health Information
Outpatient Survey

For more information visit our website at bhi.nsw.gov.au bureau of health information