

Share your experience to improve hospital care

The NSW Adult Admitted Patient Survey is asking people who were recently admitted to a public hospital about their experience.

If you are one of the 78,000 people surveyed this year, it's your opportunity to tell us what you think worked for you and what could have been done better. Your feedback is important and will be used to help improve hospital services in the future.

Bureau of Health Information
Adult Admitted Patient Survey

For more information visit our website at bhi.nsw.gov.au bureau of health information